In addition to the salary listed above, the officials are to receive cellphone allowance, monthly longevity pay, and reimbursement for travel expenses. Officials receive longevity pay in the amount of $3.00 per month for each year of service with a maximum credit of 20 years. Officials receive reimbursement for mileage at the federal standard mileage rate and receive reimbursement for other travel expenses such as meals at the federal per diem rate and lodging as established by Commissioners Court policy.

A copy of the proposed budget has been filed with the County Clerk's office and is available on the County's website for review by the public.

(1) Supplements subject to legislative change and statutory requirements. Supplements do not qualify for longevity pay.

(2) A portion of this supplement is to be paid from state funds. Any amount received from the State, which could be more or less than the salary supplement, is to be paid from fees and costs collected and remitted to the State, then distributed to the County.

County Court at Law Judges' salaries shall be set at the minimum in accordance with Tx Government Code 25.0005.
